"I love this! I use it when navigating in my car. I can use it to stick my phone to the console of the treadmill at the gym for my workout. After I bought the first one, I bought two more for when the "sticky" finally runs out. Best phone accessory ever!"

How flipstik was born:

After catching the attention of Snoop Dogg and Diddy, Akeem didn't waste a second with his forward momentum and snagged a spot on Shark Tank. Don't let anyone tell you that rap won't get you anywhere in life - because that's exactly what got Akeem his deal! He rapped his way onto the set and showed the sharks his spunky personality which led to his ultimate success on the show.

2022 Structure and Costs

This course is part of a three-university partnership. UMSL, the School of Applied Sciences in Aschaffenburg, Germany and the School of Applied Sciences in Seinajoki, Finland have created this unique graduate offering. Students and faculty from all three universities will gather at UMSL to explore and develop a global strategy for flipstik.

There is a program fee of $1600 for students from THAB, SeAMK and their partners. This fee covers lodging, breakfast and lunch on all course meeting days, an opening reception/dinner, a closing ceremony with dinner, and several social events.

The course will take place in St. Louis from 11/16/22 - 11/24/22.
